COVID-19 Pandemic EBT Food Benefits Expanded

<https://www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/covid-19/forwardhealth-foodshare.htm>

Status as of 4/29/20: We had a slight increase at the beginning of the pandemic, but right now it seems to have slowed down again. We have received notice that anyone who receives free/reduced lunches at school will be given extra money for school lunches. FoodShare also supplemented March and April benefits to our clients

Financial Assistance

Forward Service Corporation, W-2 & Emergency Assistance

Contact Danielle DeJardine, 920-366-7656

Status as of 4/27/20: No major uptick in assistance requests. Many state programs have increased assistance and modified eligibility criteria. This recorded webinar from 4/27/20 explains new government assistance: <https://cfs.wisc.edu/2020/04/14/financial-resources-during-covid-19-crisis-a-webinar-event-for-wisconsin-practitioners-educators/>

Status as of 4/29/20: As of right now, things are pretty quiet as far as people not coming to the office, not even really calling the office. There have been a few new clients that have needed assistance. We are running low on donations and cleaning supplies. No major concerns as of yet.

Being Calm and Prepared for COVID-19

The situation with the COVID-19 pandemic is rapidly changing and knowing how to respond is a challenge. UW-Extension's purpose is to connect our communities to resources that can improve their lives. This hasn't changed – even in this time of social distancing. Our staff is working on innovative methods to serve our communities. We are collecting resources from our county and our colleagues across the state to help you navigate during this challenging time.

If you know of any resources not listed here, please call UW-Extension at (920) 388-7141 to have them added to our resource list. Thank you!
